DEDICATION

MR. L. WARD BROOMALL
Superintendent

This Yearbook is respectfully dedicated to our Superintendent, Mr. L. Ward Broomall. Without his constant efforts and drive Clearview might not have become a reality. Although he may not have suspected it we have been very much aware of his leadership, guidance and untiring desire to make Clearview the top school in the country.

We are proud to have been associated with Mr. Broomall and his fine staff. The memories we take with us will be comforting in the years to come.

Mr. Broomall, the Key staff of 1963 salutes you!

FOREWORD

Our state of New Jersey will shortly be celebrating its tercentenary — 300 years of unprecedented history. Beginning with the infancy of our nation and continuing through its rise to a paramount influence in the world today, New Jersey has played a major roll in every facet of this country's existence. It was one of the original thirteen colonies, it made a definite contribution to the Constitution of the United States, furnished a President, distinguished poets, philosophers, statesmen, and defenders of the nation in every major conflict. It has the rare honor, at this stage in history, of contributing an astronaut, today's pioneer in the new frontier of space.

Clearview Regional High School stands on the threshold of the future, and is ready to embark and make its impression on history. Like our small but powerful state we will contribute our share in making her future citizens sound in mind and physically fit.

This year Clearview Regional High School will graduate its first class. We have attempted to set forth in chronological order our beginning with its events and accomplishments.

We, of the first graduating class, accept the charge given to us. Armed with knowledge, we take up the challenge of the future in an effort to make our contribution lasting and effective.

ATHLETIC AWARDS

YEARBOOK STAFF

The senior members of the Yearbook Staff have worked faithfully for two years to assist in establishing The Key as an exemplary production worthy of the tradition being established throughout the school system.

My special thanks of appreciation go to Patricia Smedley, our editor; Carol Hewitt, business manager; Kate O'Reilly, art editor; Daryl Daley, literary editor, and Suzanne Harris, activities editor.

To all senior and junior assistants—many thanks for your loyalty and hard work.

To all seniors—we have tried to make this year book one you will be proud to cherish and look at through the years to come.

CROSS COUNTRY

Cross-Country is among the up and coming sports, although this season had its drawbacks. We won three and lost four. Congratulations to Don Morgan who came in first in every Conference Meet, including the Olympic Conference. Ray Gallagher and Bill Weseman helped put Clearview up front during the South Jersey and State Championship Meets. Watch us next year!

FOOTBALL

Clearview Regional High School football season opened with approximately 70 candidates reporting for opening practice September 1, under a new head coach. The first 3 weeks were spent on conditioning and teaching fundamentals. During this training period, the dropouts brought the combined Varsity and J.V. squads down to about 50 boys.

Although the squad was small physically as well as in numbers, it made up for this with a great spirit and aggressiveness.

The opening game against Williamstown saw Clearview battle to the wire only to lose 12-7 on a 60 yard sprint in the waning moments of the game. After another bitter defeat to a powerful St. James club, the Pioneers found the winning combination against a large and talented Deptford Township team and defeated them 20-6 for their first Varsity football win. Against the pre-season choice Edgewood, the Pioneers succumbed 20-18 after taking an 18-0 lead early in the first half. The second win came against the strong Overbrook team, 13-12 in a hard fought battle. Against Glassboro and Sterling the Pioneers fell to superior teams, 33-0 and 32-0, in that order. Sandwiched between these loses was the 6-6 tie with Triton, which again was a great favorite to win.

In all, this was a great season for the Clearview Pioneers and we are looking forward to an even greater future.

LATIN NIGHT

The Second Annual Latin Night took place in May 1962. After an opening prayer, all the guests joined in eating dinner, which was served by Freshmen slaves. After the meal, Dave Thomas was defeated by Bruce Sanderson in a fierce gladitorial fight. It was then announced that Ed Stevenson and Ann Barrett had been chosen to reign as king and queen over the evening's festivities.

LATIN BANQUET
